Q1 How does the king react when the British officer wishes to be photographed with a dead tiger?
(A) He agrees but under strict royal supervision
(B) He sends a dead tiger from a previous hunt
(C) He denies the request but offers a bribe
(D) He organises a fake hunt with a sedated tiger

Q2 Why does the king's staff not inform him that the hundredth tiger was not actually killed by him?
(A) They feared losing their jobs
(B) They wanted to test the prophecy
(C) They did not notice it themselves
(D) They planned to deceive the king

Q3 How does the Dewan procure a tiger for the king's hunt when no tigers are left?
(A) He arranges a painted wooden tiger
(B) He has one brought from the zoo
(C) He gets one from a neighbouring kingdom
(D) He purchases one from a circus

Q4 What is ironic about the king's efforts to avoid death?
(A) He becomes a saint to avoid death but dies young
(B) He mocks astrology but follows it blindly
(C) He avoids tigers but dies because of a toy tiger
(D) He never kills a single tiger himself

Q5 How is the king's rule over his kingdom portrayed in the story?
(A) Progressive and reform-driven
(B) Cruel and unjust
(C) Absurdly focused on tiger hunting
(D) Focused on education and welfare

Q6 What strategy does the Tiger King adopt to achieve his goal of killing 100 tigers?
(A) He launches a forest campaign
(B) He forms tiger-hunting squads
(C) He marries into a tiger-rich kingdom
(D) He trains villagers to track tigers

Q7 What does the king's decision to prioritise tiger hunting over administrative duties reflect?
(A) His desire to protect wildlife
(B) His devotion to sport and tradition
(C) His obsession with self-preservation
(D) His contempt for foreign rulers

Q8 What does the Tiger King's decision to ban tiger hunting for others reflect?
(A) His commitment to tiger conservation
(B) His insecurity about fulfilling the prophecy himself
(C) His desire to save his people from danger
(D) His belief in collective responsibility

Q9 Why do the townspeople later organise a grand celebration for the king?
(A) He has completed building a new palace
(B) He has supposedly killed the hundredth tiger
(C) He has abolished taxes
(D) He has won a war against a rival kingdom

Q10 What lesson does the ending of 'The Tiger King' imply?
(A) One should always obey elders
(B) Death is inevitable and destiny is inescapable
(C) Kings must rely on their ministers
(D) Violence against animals leads to bad luck

Answer Key

Q1	C
Q2	A
Q3	B
Q4	C
Q5	C
Q6	C
Q7	C
Q8	B
Q9	B
Q10	B

Hints & Solutions

Note: scan the QR code to watch video solution

Q1 Text Solution:

He denies the request but offers a bribe

Video Solution:

Q2 Text Solution:

They feared losing their jobs

Video Solution:

Q3 Text Solution:

He has one brought from the zoo

Video Solution:

Q4 Text Solution:

He avoids tigers but dies because of a toy tiger

Video Solution:

Q5 Text Solution:

Absurdly focused on tiger hunting

Video Solution:

Q6 Text Solution:

He marries into a tiger-rich kingdom

Video Solution:

Q7 Text Solution:

15. His obsession with self-preservation

Video Solution:

Q8 Text Solution:

His insecurity about fulfilling the prophecy himself

Video Solution:

Q9 Text Solution:

He has supposedly killed the hundredth tiger

Video Solution:

Q10 Text Solution:

Death is inevitable and destiny is inescapable

Video Solution:

Android App | iOS App | PW Website