Q1 Text Solution:
Hours of the day and months of a year

Video Solution:

Q2 Text Solution:
Correct Answer: A) Introspection and retrospection to be more peaceful and be in harmony

Explanation:

The essence of the poem "Keeping Quiet" by Pablo Neruda is to encourage self-reflection (introspection) and looking back at our actions (retrospection). By doing so, we can find inner peace and live in harmony with ourselves, others, and nature.

Video Solution:

Q3 Text Solution:
Correct Answer: C) Earth

Explanation:

The poet uses Earth as a symbol to show that keeping quiet is not total inactivity. Even when Earth appears still, life continues beneath the surface—seeds sprout, trees grow, and regeneration happens silently. This proves that silence can be full of life and productive.

Video Solution:

Q4 Text Solution:
By creating peace and brotherhood feelings

Video Solution:

Q5 Text Solution:
Correct Answer: D) Soul searching

Explanation:

The poet believes that true peace comes from within, through soul searching—a deep pause to reflect on our actions, thoughts, and existence. He advocates for silence and stillness to help individuals connect with themselves and promote global harmony.

Video Solution:

Q6 Text Solution:
Correct Answer: D) Because it creates barriers or obstacles in the form of misunderstanding amongst people

Explanation:

The poet asks people not to speak because language often leads to misunderstandings, arguments, and divisions. By keeping silent, people can reflect, understand each other better, and promote peace and unity.
